CLASS PROPHECY

The airplane stewardess walked toward me with a smile and to my amazement I recognized an old classmate from ten years past, Patty Merical. We chatted a few moments, then she helped me to my seat. After a while I found that I was sitting by Howard Hoy. He told me he was a traveling salesman and was also going back to Redfield on a visit.

We arrived at the airport at 11:30 a.m. and went straight to a cafe where we were served our lunch by Erma Wacht. We asked about the cafe and she informed us that it was owned by Max Carr, who also owned a night club in another part of town. As we were eating, we heard a loud commotion out front so we rushed to the street. At the scene of the accident was Doctor Laura Parker and Undertaker Billy Forshier with his wife, Edna Amann. A siren was heard and up drove Police Chief Harvey Beane, but the accident wasn't serious. It was just Farmer Kenny Hogan bringing his produce to market in his car when he was hit by Richard Smeltzer who was on his motorcycle. We went back after we had finshed our lunch where we were joined by the former Carolyn Gibbons (now Mrs. Gene Martin). She said she would show us around. We first went to the big department store owned by Dick Bales. There we met Model Pauline Thompson just modeling a fur coat. Across the street we went into a beauy parlor where Darlene Thompson was giving Don Sloan a permanent wave. Then over in the next block, Carolyn showed us Henry Kester's Art Studio. As we passed the old school house, which was much larger now, we saw Superintendent Roger Martin scolding Mary Lou Morris's children for fighting on the school lawn. Then we walked past a neat little house which Carolyn said belonged to the stern, trim old maid, Shirlie Harrison. Next we went to the brick yard, now owned by Ronnie Simpson where we were greeted by his charming Secretary Patty Dunbar. We next went past the orphanage and found Nurse Dona Keltner singing lullabies to the babies.

That evening we went back to the Carr Night Club where we chatted with the hat check girl, Norma Miller. We had a superb dinner and I mustn't forget to tell about the excellent floor show presented by the singing team, Darrell Duff and his partner Norman Rogers. I really enjoyed my vacation and again having the pleasure of meeting my old classmates of 1949.

CLASS WILL

We, the seniors of Redfield High School, class of '49, being of sound mind and body, do will and bequeath our following outstanding features to our under classmates, that they may use them to the best of their advantage.

Billy Forshier, who was at one time the smallest boy in our class, does will and bequeath his big feet to Wayne Aldrich.

Henry Kester and Max Carr leave their outstanding sales talk to the Junior class.

Leah Parker your dream for long hair has been answered, Edna Amann has consented to leave hers to you.

Wanda Huggins does will and bequeath her beautiful alto voice to Jerry Freestone.

At last someone is available who can use Harvey Beane's long forgotten energy, Jordan Kephart has been elected.

Lois Stonehocker, did you know you are going to be tall? Dona Keltner is leaving you her height.

Darlene Thompson wills her ability to blush to Junior Crase.

Hello Blondie, that's you Janet Reynolds, Norma Miller is leaving you her blonde hair.

Erma Wacht leaves her many pairs of glasses to Wendell Miller, just in case.

Richard Zellers your unruly hair problem has been solved, Don Sloan is leaving you his well kept hair.

Shirlie Harrison leaves her ability to write "True Romances" to Harold Summy.

Dick Bales, who has the ability always to get to school at exactly one minute before the bell, says Donna Towns may now have the privilege.

The good looking fellow who has that manly physique and big broad shoulders is Richard Smeltzer, who now leaves them to big Jimmy Cochran.

Bobbie Thompson, you lucky boy, Patty Merical has consented to leave you her natural curly hair if you won't let it get gray too fast.

Donnie Mills your worries are over now, Laura Parker is giving you her good grades.

Pauline Thompson leaves her seat in the back of the assembly by Darrell Stapes to Patty Lou Baker.

Howard Hoy wills his southern drawl to Shirley Belle Merical.

Carolyn Gibbons leaves her basketball days to the future teams of Redfield High School.

Roger Martin leaves his way with women to Warren Brandstatter.

Norman Rogers leaves his way to get good grades without studying to Janice Wright.

CLASS HISTORY

Of the seniors who started to Redfield High School in the first grade of the year of 1937, ten remain to graduate together. They are Harvey Beane, Billy Forshier, Shirlie Harrison, Dona Keltner, Mary Lou Morris, Ronald Simpson, Richard Smeltzer, Darlene Thompson, Pauline Thompson, and Erma Wacht.

Our first year we were guided by Miss Allen.

Miss Sperow was our second grade teacher.

Richard Bales joined us in our third year. Our teacher was Miss Aldrich.

Miss Agan was our fourth grade teacher.

In fifth grade we gained Carolyn Gibbons and Patty Dunbar. Miss Raber was our teacher.

Miss Kirby was our sixth grade teacher.

Miss Lepley was our seventh grade teacher. We were joined by Norman Rogers and Roger Martin that year.

Mrs. Shaw was our eighth grade teacher.

The "green freshmen of '45" were joined by Kenneth Hogan, Howard Hoy, Wanda Huggins, Henry Kester, Patty Merical, Norma Miller and Laura Parker. Our sponsor was Mrs. Pontius.

As sophomores we welcomed Edna Amann and Don Sloan. Our sponsor was Coach Huisman.

In our junior year we completed the list with Max Carr and Darrell Duff. Our class sponsors were Miss Browne and Mrs. Wallert.

Now after almost twelve long years of work and play we are nearing the long sought goal of education and yet many of us are almost sorry tc reach it. Our class sponsor for our last year is Coach Padilla.

CLASS WILL AND TESTAMENT

Settle down Frankie Ulrich, Ronnie Simpson has left you his quiet impressive ways.

Mary Lou Morris leaves her ability to be heard to Rosella Kopaska.

Darrell Duff bequeaths his manly tenor voice to Joyce Downing.

Darlene Cave, did you know that you are going to be a top typist? Patty Dunbar is leaving you her typing ability.

Kenny Hogan leaves his ability to sell annuals to the senior class of next year.

The Seniors presented a splendid performance of "Little Women," as dramatized by Marian De Forest, from Louisa May Alcott's novel of the same name. This four act comedy contains many familiar episodes of the loved story, chiefly comedy but with just enough pathos to bring a tear. A story that will never grow old dealing with the mingled joy and sadness of family life, and portraying the beauty of birth, life and death.

ROW TWO: Coach Padilla, Maurice Pontius, Warren Brandstatter, Harold Summy, Billy Woolman, Pat Mitchell, Lloyd Stapes, Manager.

The boys 1948-1949 basketball practice started on November 15, with thirty-two boys reporting. Coach picked a traveling squad of ten boys. The boys had an average season. Lloyd Stapes was the manager.

The squad will only lose three seniors, therefore they should put out a pretty fair team next season. Rich Smeltzer was chosen captain.

The boys have played 20 games, winning 7 and losing 13. Their percentage for the season was 35 per cent.

REDFIELD HAS A FAIR BASEBALL SEASON

The Redfield bulldogs finished third in the Racoon River Valley Conference in the 1948 season. In the 1949 season we are going to miss Dale Hague and Kenneth Lamb who won gold baseballs as batting champions with an average of .391 and .369 respectively. Dale Hague was absent when the baseball picture was taken.

The lettermen for the 1948 season were Dick Kolp, Richard Smeltzer, Kenneth Lamb, Dale Hague, Kenneth Hogan, Billy Burgess, Roger Martin, Keith Hutchins and Harold Summy.

LIBRARIANS

ROW ONE: Erma Wacht, Miss Leeper.
ROW TWO: Marilyn Turk, Norman Rogers, Elsie Sneathen, Darlene Thompson, Patty Merical, Juanita Evans, Leah Parker, Mona Gibler, Blanche Carpenter, Lena Crase, Darlene Cave.
ROW THREE: Billy Forshier, Dona Keltner, Don Mills, Junior Crase, Shirlie Harrison, Norma Miller, Darrell Duff.

The group of librarians above, supervised by Miss Leeper, are keeping our library in good order. The librarians check the books in and out and arrange them in alphabetical order by the author of the books.

Various ways have been used to improve our library system. A black list has been made to encourage students with lower grades to study by not allowing them to read books for pleasure during school hours, without special permission. New books have been added this year giving us a large number of fiction books. "South by Thunderbird" an educational book of South America, was given to us by the American Legion Auxiliary. Students are not allowed to sign out to the library for more than five minutes. This eliminates gatherings.

ANNUAL STAFF

FIRST ROW: Patty Merical, Erma Wacht, Laura Parker, Carolyn Gibbons, Darrell Duff, and Richard Smeltzer.
SECOND ROW: Dona Keltner, Howard Hoy, Norman Rogers, Fred Hurst, Harvey Beane, Don Sloan, Darlene Thompson, Edna Amann, Shirley Belle Merical, Janet Reynolds, Shirley Harrison, Norma Miller, Wanda Huggins, Patty Dunbar, Mary Lou Morris, and Bill Forshier.
THIRD ROW: Richard Bales, Roger Martin, Pauline Thompson, Kenneth Hogan, Max Carr, Ronald Simpson, Henry Kester, and Mr. Butcher, Sponsor.

BULLDOG STAFF

The members of the senior class were each given some duty to perform in composing our annual. The elective body was chosen by the class officers, class sponsor; Mr. Padilla, and annual sponsor; Mr. Butcher, with final approval made by Mr. Pontius; Superintendent.

The class was divided into four sales crews besides other offices, so that every senior had some responsibility. This six hundred dollar project is financed by the class, through solicited advertising of business, professional and civic organizations; the sale of annuals; and of food at football and basketball games. This part of the project was under the supervision of Mrs. Pontius and Miss Marner, Business Manager, Darrell Duff; Sales Manager, Wanda Huggins; and Advertising Manager, Richard Smeltzer.

The work of setting up the annual copy was done by the editor, Carolyn Gibbons and assistant editor, Laura Parker, directed by the annual sponsor, Mr. Butcher. After this the copy is mailed to the publishing company, Serights of Lincoln, Nebraska; they assume the responsibility of completing the book.

We present this annual with great pride and hope it will bring you fond memories in years to come.

NEWS STAFF

ROW ONE: Patty Merical, Erma Wacht, Editor-in-Chief Laura Parker, Assistant Editor-in-Chief Frances Altwegg, Wanda Huggins, Junior Crase.
ROW TWO: Donna Towns, Lela Mae Toler, Donna Mylan, Darlene Thompson, Edna Amann, Shirley Belle Merical, Joyce Downing, Juanita Evans, Darlene Cave.
ROW THREE: Pauline Thompson, Dona Keltner, Glenn Aldrich, Frank Ulrich, Bill Forshier, Mr. Butcher.

The News Staff meets every Monday afternoon, with the Seniors acting as editorial officers, and the Juniors acting as their assistants. The news is collected and written, after which it is typed and turned over to Mr. Butcher and Mr. Pontius for approval. The news is then turned over to the Review Press which publishes it in the local paper.

The Freshman and Sophomore classes are represented by a class reporter, and a person is chosen from each of the above named classes to record the weekly items in the Bulldog scrapbook.

Loud laughed the cowboys,
Through the gunsmoke and the gloom
Beneath the flickering lanterns,
In our dimly lighted room.
Our setting was a dude ranch,
And our object to delight,
The graduating students,
On that wonderful May night.
Sixguns started barking
And the program struck its pace,
When the joyous evening ended,
Not a sad soul left the place.

SCHOOL HOT LUNCHES

These three busy ladies, Mrs. Hartzell, Mrs. Massure, and Mrs. Miller are responsible for the delicious food served each noon in our lunch room.

In an effort to increase efficiency, a new deep freeze and built-in cupboard have been furnished and to add to the attractiveness of the room venetian blinds were added.

The menus are planned for variety and nutrition. During this school year the favorite menus are:

| FIRST | TIED FOR SECOND |
|---|---|
| Made-rites | Chicken and biscuits, mashed potatoes |
| Potato Salad | Chile soup, cake, cabbage salad |

THIRD

Hamburger gravy
Whipped potatoes

The whole project is under the management of Mr. Pontius who has placed it on a paying basis as the following figures show.

| | |
|---|---|
| Total cash income for 20 weeks | $6,016.42 |
| Total cash expenditures for 20 weeks | 5,913.69 |
| Cash on hand | $ 102.73 |

THANK YOU

The members of the Senior Class of "49", wish to express their sincere appreciation to the many clubs, organizations, and businessmen who donated money to help us make our annual a success.

Without your help it would have been extremely hard for us to finance this worth while project.
